THE CZAR'S REMAINS

Impressive Ceremonies Held at Livadia.

NICHOLAS' FIRST PROCLAMATION.

The New Ruler of Russia Assumes His Official Duties—All Russia in Mourning For the Dead Monarch—Messages of Condolence That Passed Between the United States and Russia.

LIVADIA, Nov. 3.—The remains of Czar Alexander III, having been embalmed and attired in the uniform of the Preobrazhensky regiment of the guard, were conveyed to the private chapel of the palace. The bier was surrounded with lighted candles and is watched by relays of priests and officers of the army.

At the religious services, which were afterward held in the chapel, all the members of the imperial family and the imperial household were present. The officiating priest, after censuring the remains, began chanting an impressive liturgy. The whole ceremony was most imposing and produced the deepest effect upon those present.

Though the Russians have not the same way of showing mourning as the western nations, it is evident that the death of the czar has made a greater and deeper impression than might have been expected. The streets are crowded with a multitude of people, most of whom are clad in black, who in whispering tones discuss events. The theaters and schools are closed. The churches are crowded with people who wish to pray for the soul of the dead czar. From other towns reports are received bearing testimony to the spirit of deep mourning that prevails.

It is understood that the body of the dead czar will be consecrated at Moscow and then conveyed to St. Petersburg where it will lie in state for four days. The Russian court will mourn for six months.

Princess Alix, the betrothed of Czar Nicholas, will return to Darmstadt with her brother, the Grand Duke of Hesse.

NICHOLAS' PROCLAMATION.

The New Ruler of Russia Issues His First Manifesto to the Public.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—The following is the text of the manifesto issued by Czar Nicholas II and published in The Official Messenger:

We hereby announce to all our faithful subjects that God in His inscrutable providence has seen fit to assign a limit to the precious life of our dearly loved imperial father. His grievous sufferings, yielding neither to medical skill nor the beneficent climate of the Crimea, he died at Livadia on the 20th of October (Nov. 1), surrounded by his family and in the arms of the czarina and ourselves. Our grief is not to be expressed by words but that grief every Russian heart will understand, and we believe there is not a spot throughout the vast Russian empire which hot tears will not flow for the emperor thus prematurely called away, who has parted from the country which he loved with all the power of his Russian soul and in the welfare of which, sparing neither health nor life, he centered all his thoughts. But also far beyond the borders of Russia the memory of the czar, who was the incarnation of unswerving loyalty and peace, which during his reign was not once broken, will not cease to be respected. The will of the Most High be done.

May our unshaken faith in the wisdom of Providence give us strength; may the knowledge console us that our grief is the grief of our entire beloved nation, and may the nation not forget that the strength and firmness and holy Russia lies in its unity and unbounded devotion to us.

In this sad and solemn hour in which we ascend our ancestral throne of the Russian empire and cordon of Poland and the grand duchy of Finland, indissolubly linked with it, we, however, to remember the legacy left us by our lamented father and imbued with it, we, in the presence of the Most High, take a sacred vow to make our sole aim the peaceful development of the power and the glory of our beloved Russia and the happiness of all our faithful subjects.

May the Almighty, who has chosen us for this high calling, vouchsafe to us his aid. While we offer before the throne to the Almighty Ruler our heartfelt praise for the unstained soul of the departed, we command our subjects to take the oath of allegiance to ourselves and our successor, the Grand Duke Alexandrovitch, who will bear the title of crown prince and czar-witch until it shall please God to bless our approaching union with the Princess Alix, of Hesse-Darmstadt, with the birth of a son.

I. NICHOLAS.

THE NEW CZAR'S POLICY.

Much Speculation Regarding It—The Opinions at Rome.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Rome says it is believed that the new czar, whose sympathies are known to be with Germany and England, will by degrees detach himself from France. The special dispatch adds, however, that a personage connected with the Russian embassy asserts that the accession of Nicholas II will begin a new policy; but only in regard to home legislation and in the direction of liberal reforms.

In Russia's foreign policy, this official is quoted as saying, the traditions of the czar's father will remain unchanged. The Vatican is said to hope that the czar will continue the traditions of friendliness toward Rome which marked the last days of Alexander III. The pope will be represented at the funeral of the czar, either by Archbishop Mohilev or by the papal nuncio at Vienna.

The Vatican believes that the death of the czar will in no way affect the Franco-Russian alliance, and it is said that so long as Cardinal Rampolla, who is an ardent friend of Russia, remains papal secretary of state, the adherence of the Vatican to the Franco-Russian alliance will remain an article of pontifical faith.

MESSAGES OF CONDOLENCE.

President Cleveland's Telegram to the New Czar, Nicholas II.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—In addition to a short cablegram from United States Minister Breckinridge at St. Petersburg received by Secretary Gresham announcing the death of the czar, and the communication of the fact by Prince Cantacuzene, the Russian minister here, Minister Breckinridge addressed the following cablegram to Secretary Gresham:

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3. Nicholas II declared emperor.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.

Breckinridge, Minister, St. Petersburg:

The President has sent to Livadia, in response to a telegram from Emperor Nicholas, a sincere regret and condolence. You will make this known to Mr. De Giers, expressing the sincere sympathy of the people and president of the United States with the Russian people in their deep grief.

In addition to the foregoing exchange of sympathetic messages the following personal cablegrams passed directly between Emperor Nicholas II and President Cleveland:

LIVADIA, Nov. 2, 1894.

To the President of the United States of America:

I have sorrow to impart to you the cruel loss that I and Russia have just sustained in the person of my beloved father, Emperor Alexander, deceased this day.

NICHOLAS.

The president replied to this personal note as follows:

WASHINGTON, U. S. A., Nov. 2, 1894.

To His Majesty, Nicholas II, Emperor of Russia, Livadia:

I hasten to express my heartfelt sympathy and the sympathy of my countrymen with the royal family and the Russian people in their affliction by reason of the death of your honored father.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

The deviation from the usual custom of sending messages of condolence through the secretary of state, was taken in the present instance because Emperor Nicholas, in notifying the president of his father's death, made the notification more personal than official. The usual formal response of the United States government to the government of Russia was embodied in a cable message sent to Mr. Clifton R. Breckinridge, our minister at St. Petersburg, as follows:

Sympathy of all Europe.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Queen Victoria, in addition to the official dispatch of sympathy, sent to the imperial family of Russia, forwarded a private message of sympathy to the czarina and another to the Czar Nicholas.

From all the capitals of Europe dispatches announce the great impression which the death of Czar Alexander has produced.

From Rome it is stated that the King of Italy, the pope and Premier Crispi have sent message of condolence to Livadia and a telegram from Bernese states that the Swiss federal council has done the same.

HIGHBINDER IN CHICAGO.

An Attempt Made to Assassinate Two Well Known Chinamen.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—An attempt was made at an early hour yesterday morning by an agent of the society of Highbinders supposedly to assassinate Hip Lung and Sam Moy, the two most wealthy and influential Chinamen in Chicago, and the police believe the lives of these two well known Celestials were only saved by the accidental awakening of the guard who was sleeping with them in Sam Moy's apartment at 323 Clark street.

The watchman found a well-dressed Chinaman attempting to force an entrance to the sleeping room and by his cries scared the intruder away. Hip Lung reported to the police that he had incurred the enmity of the Highbinders and had been informed that he had decreed his death. The police believe the plot extends to other prominent Chinamen in Chicago and other cities.

Hazing May End in Death.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Nov. 3.—Hazing by students at the Maryland Agricultural college is liable to result in the death of one of their number, Edwin Gott, Jr., son of the secretary of state. Several nights ago a mock court was held and young Gott was convicted of a heinous crime. A rope was secured, fastened under his arms and he was suspended to a transom. Young Gott appeared at breakfast next morning as though nothing had happened, but later in the day was taken very ill. He has had several spasms and continues to grow worse. He has been too ill to be removed to his home at Annapolis, and his condition is extremely dangerous.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The Rev. W. H. Duncan, treasurer of Georgetown college, died yesterday as a result of an apoplectic stroke suffered some time ago. He was a prominent member of the Jesuit order. Prior to entering the order he was vicar general of the diocese of Mobile, Ala., and for 20 years pastor of St. Mary's church, Boston.

THE IVANHOE IS LOST

No Doubt About the Fate of the Missing Vessel.

ALL ON BOARD HAVE PERISHED.

A Crew of Twenty Persons and Four Passengers, Two of Whom Were Ladies. Fred. J. Grant One of the Victims—Last Seen Off Cape Flattery September 30.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 3.—What appears to be positive news of the loss of the ship Ivanhoe, the vessel which sailed out of this port on Sept. 27 for San Francisco, was brought to Port Blakely last night by Captain Peterson of the bark Fanny Dutard, which has arrived at that place from Santa Barbara.

The Fanny Dutard sailed from Port Blakely for Santa Barbara on Sept. 26, the day before the Ivanhoe left Seattle for San Francisco. The Ivanhoe, however, was towed to sea, while the Dutard sailed out.

Captain Peterson tells the following story: On the night of Sept. 28 a fearful gale prevailed, the wind blowing at the rate of 55 miles an hour. At 12:30 p. m. on Sept. 30, while off Cape Flattery, Captain Peterson sighted a vessel about four miles to windward, lurching heavily and evidently in distress. No distress signals were flying, and shortly afterward Captain Peterson retired to his cabin.

The storm of the previous night had subsided and there was very little wind, although it was quite heavy. About an hour later he was called by the mate, who told him the vessel had disappeared. Captain Peterson swept the sea with his glass and satisfied himself that the vessel had gone down. When he arrived at Port Blakely Wednesday the loss of the Ivanhoe was reported to him. Then he told the story.

"I am satisfied," he said to a reporter, "that the vessel which disappeared so suddenly off Cape Flattery, Sept. 30, was the Ivanhoe."

The Ivanhoe carried a crew of 20 who all shipped from San Francisco and were as follows: Captain E. D. Graham, Mate James J. Toeing, C. H. Christensen, carpenter, William Andolin; two Chinese cooks, Sailors Hans Stevenson, M. Stewart, Frank Zeirino, H. Johnson, E. Lowenroth, George Ordler, Samuel Harp, J. J. Ohmessen, M. F. Guiderston, Lemart Holm, W. Herrinam, John Anderson, Martin Jacobson.

The passengers aboard the vessel were: Hon. Frederic J. Grant, editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer; Allen B. Folger and two ladies, Mrs. Mattie L. Bara and her friend, Mrs. Dr. Irene Mullen, and a stowaway, Edward Aliardyce, who had people living in San Francisco.

THREE PEOPLE INJURED.

A Passenger Train Dashes Into a Coal Train.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A serious accident occurred on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago tracks, near the Ninety-fifth street crossing, at South Chicago, last night, when a suburban passenger train dashed into a coal train of the Calumet and Blue Island railroad. Two lives were lost, but three people were seriously injured and a number badly shaken up.

Those seriously hurt are: Ira Pogue, conductor of the passenger train; A. Bore, brakeman, and E. W. Bennett, express messenger. None of the injured will die.

Back in Jail Again.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3.—Sheriff James Ross captured James Cooley, the United States prisoner who escaped from the jail Thursday night, in a house not far from the jail, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and he is in the jail again. Sam Gillian, a "trustee" who escaped with him, was also found with Cooley. James McCann, who, it is charged, took Cooley away from the jail in a buggy, is under arrest.

Dosed Her Beer.

LIMA, O., Nov. 3.—Maggie Johns, a habitue of the Tenderloin district, was poisoned last night by drinking drugged beer. A quartet of women were "running the growler," when Maggie was suddenly taken sick from an acid dropped into her beer by a jealous companion. The girl's condition is critical, but she refuses to make any complaint against her would-be slayer.

Boy Giant.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 3.—Ross county now boasts a boy giant who is only 15 years old and measures six feet eight inches in his stocking feet. He weighs 210 pounds and is still growing. The lad's name is Alban Eaton, and his home is near Adelphi. He was never in this city until today, and created quite a sensation while walking along the street.

Freight Train Wrecked.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3.—As freight train No. 63 of the Louisville and Nashville was approaching Springfield, Tenn., about 11 o'clock last night, it parted, and the two sections rushing together made a bad wreck. Several cars were demolished. The track for some distance was torn up and other serious damages sustained. An unknown man supposed to be stealing a ride was killed. Traffic was suspended several hours.

Murdering Infants For Insurance.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 3.—It is believed by the Tennessee state board of health that the practice of murdering young infants for the insurance taken out upon them is rapidly growing among the lower classes of the negro population, and an investigation is now in progress.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

But Very Little Change in the Leading Lines From Last Week's Report.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The last week of October, with an exciting election near, can not indicate much of the true condition of the business. In some trades the season is too far advanced for great activity, and in others the supposed effects of the voting hinder operations. But it is satisfactory that the volume of production is well maintained, and in one or two branches increased, that no monetary difficulties disturb that breadstuffs are a little higher and that no material decline appears during the week in manufactured products. At present the volume of business transacted is on the whole smaller than last year and much smaller than in 1892, though a presidential election was then close at hand.

Corn has advanced 4 cents, with western receipts about a third and exports about an eighth of last year's. Yet pork and hogs are a shade lower with lard about the same. Wheat is three-fourths cents higher for spot and 1 cent for December and it looks as if strength in corn had prevented a further decline, although western receipts were only 4,887,670 bushels for the week, against 6,503,171 last year, and Atlantic exports increased to 686,596 bushels, against 740,506 last year. The irresistible force of course the enormous accumulation which continues, although producers may naturally be inclined not to sell at current prices.

Cotton is again lower, spot being $5.75, with receipts so heavy that large crop estimates are favored, though it makes little difference in the real prospect whether the yield is half a million or a million bales greater than the world's requirement, with great stocks of old cotton in sight.

The depression of cotton and wheat and the partial loss of the corn crop must be reckoned important causes of hesitancy in retail distribution of products.

In the iron industry the chief activity is in structural work, bridge and other plates, while the demand for sheets is somewhat diminished, bar and wire show no improvement and nails are weaker. The average of quotations of various kinds of iron and steel is 3 per cent lower than in July, 6.5 per cent higher than at the lowest point in April and 20 per cent lower than in July last year. A conference of steel-rail makers resulted in no change of policy, though purchases of English rails by Mr. Huntington for Pacific delivery and by Canadian roads indicate that American makers are losing part of their natural market.

Waiting for retail trade depresses the textile manufactures and concessions in price have been made to effect large contracts. Otherwise, the market is generally dull, without indications of improvement. In wools, the fall and winter demand is disappointing, though still fairly large for the season, but the expected supplemental orders do not appear, and great uncertainty prevails as to spring goods. No changes of price are noted. Manufacturers are not disposed to produce in advance of the change Jan. 1, and so are buying only for current needs, and at the west, it is complained that wool goes begging at prices below the parity of similar wool abroad on the scored basis. At the three eastern markets sales for the week were 4,004,900 pounds against 4,458,500 last year, and 7,056,953 in 1892.

During the past week failures have been 249 in the United States, against 358 last year and 50 in Canada against 28 last year.

Receiver Will Be Appointed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Judge Jenkins Friday overruled the demurrer of the Bradford faction, in the Chicago Traction Land company quarrel, to the bill for the appointment of a receiver in the United States circuit court. In his decision the court reviewed the fight which has been carried on by the Bradford and Bryan factions for the possession of the stock of the company. "It may not be improper to suggest," he said, "that unless this quarrel is speedily terminated and the factions unite to extricate this property from its entanglements, any contention over the ownership of the stock will be fruitless to the ultimate victors, and that nothing will be left for either creditors or the stockholders."

General Booth's Tour.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, has arrived in this city, and in connection with Commander Ballington Booth he will conduct a monster jubilee celebration of the army, which will continue during the remainder of the week. The general will lecture at the Academy of Music upon the subject of his social scheme. He will be introduced by ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker, and a number of other distinguished citizens will be present at the meeting.

Accused His Daughter-in-Law.

TUSCOLA, Ills., Nov. 3.—While ascending the stairway leading from his cellar Joseph Hapf fell in such a manner that a butcherknife he was carrying in his hand entered his left side. The blade penetrated his heart. Hapf's father arrived soon after and charged his son's wife with murder. So despondent he became that he ran the woman into the fields in his efforts to kill her.

Prominent Man Missing.

BIG FIRE IN OMAHA.

Packing Houses Damaged to the Extent of $300,000.

TWO BRAVE FIREMEN KILLED.

The Flames Started in the "Killing" Department and Spread Rapidly to the Adjoining Buildings Three Hundred Men Thrown Out of Work by the Conflagration—The Building Well Insured.

OMAHA, Nov. 3.—A fire, with a loss of $300,000 (fully covered by insurance), yesterday wiped out the beef-killing and several other departments of the Hammond Packing company's plant at South Omaha and resulted in the death of two firemen—John Swanson, of the South Omaha fire department, and Hank Peters, a Hammond fireman.

These men were caught under falling walls and instantly killed. Immediately after the wall fell efforts at recovering the bodies of the two men were begun, but it was two hours before their remains were uncovered. When taken from the debris it was discovered that both men were still grasping the hose nozzle they were holding when their lives were crushed out. Steele was married only last Wednesday.

The fire originated in the cloakroom of the beef killing department, and is supposed to have been caused by a lighted tobacco pipe in the pocket of some one's overcoat.

The Omaha department sent three companies to assist those of South Omaha, and a hard fight was made for several hours.

The water pressure was low, and only the presence of a fire-proof wall prevented the total destruction of the property. As it is, what remained was badly damaged and about 800 persons were thrown out of employment.

The fire was very fierce, owing to the nature of the material burned.

By great endeavors the firemen saved a 90,000 gallon tank of oil, which, had it exploded, would have done terrible harm.

ANOTHER JAPANESE VICTORY.

The Moukden Road Now Open For the Advancement of the Japanese Army.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Japanese legation has received a dispatch stating that Field Marshal Yamagata has captured Fung-hwang-Ching, a city in the Chinese province of Liautung, near the Korean frontier. The Chinese defending the place fled towards Matienling.

The foregoing victory is an important one. It leaves the Moukden road open to the Japanese as the Chinese are not likely to offer any further resistance to the advance of the Japanese army.

Plan of the Japs.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to The Times from Shanghai says that it is now asserted that no Japanese have landed near Talichwan, but they have landed at Takushan, at the mouth of the Yalu river. It is the intention of the Japanese forces to attack Fung-hwang-Ching from two sides. Fung-hwang-Ching lies about 200 miles northwest of Takushan, which is on the Manchuria side of the Yalu river.

Japanese Troops Advancing.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Japanese legation has received a dispatch stating that the Japanese forces, commanded by Field Marshal Count Oyama, is attacking Kin-Chow. Both Talienhwan and Port Arthur are in a critical position.

CABINET MEETING.

John James Howard, Mr. Morton's Coachman's Case Still Undecided.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—There were three absentees from yesterday's cabinet meeting, Secretary Gresham and Postmaster General Bissell being confined to their homes by severe colds and Secretary Smith being self-quarantined. The death of the czar was a subject of conversation.

The case of John James Howard, Mr. Morton's coachman, was not discussed at the meeting. No final and definite conclusion has yet been reached by Secretary Carlisle, but the indications are that a decision will be announced in the near future. The probabilities are that the decision will make a new precedent for the treasury department, which heretofore has held that employees of Howard's class, in order to come within the exceptions of the alien contract labor law, must accompany their employers to the United States. The treasury department and Secretary Carlisle would have welcomed and greatly desired a trial of the case in the courts on its merits, but as Judge Lacombe's decision rendered this impossible, the secretary, it is thought here, will be inclined now to make a new precedent and to permit Howard to remain in the United States.

ONE OF THE COOK GANG CAPTURED.

It Is Believed an Effort Will Be Made to Liberate Him.

CLAREMORE, I. T., Nov. 3.—Deputy Marshal Beard and city policemen arrested a man by the name of Melville Galloway here yesterday evening, supposed to be one of the Cook gang, and one of the men who figured in the hold-up of the Missouri Pacific station at this place some time ago.

Galloway confessed that he took part in the Missouri Pacific hold-up here. He has kept up an incessant hallooing ever since he was put behind the bars, and this leads to the belief that an effort will be made to liberate him and the town is in an intense state of excitement. The officers have sworn in an extra force. It is believed that the entire gang is in hiding west of here.

"All who are charged on behalf of the Democratic party with the redemption of its pledge should be impressively reminded that loyalty to party organization demands the subordination of individual advantages and wishes and the putting aside of petty and ignoble jealousies and bickerings when party principles and party integrity and party existence are at stake."—Grover Cleveland.

If you are a Democrat through principle and conviction, put an X under the rooster next Tuesday. That is all the marking you need do.

A COUPLE of Maysville Republicans have been out in portions of the county the past day or so distributing A. P. A. literature. It shows what desperate and despicable tactics they are resorting to on the eve of the election. Any party that would seek to rile into power by appealing to the religious passions and prejudices of the people deserves and should receive the condemnation of all good citizens. All liberal minded Republicans should vote to rebuke this secret, oath-bound association that has fastened itself on their party. No sensible Democrat will be deceived or misled.

HERE'S good advice from the Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat: "Democrats who, for any reason, are thinking of staying away from the polls next Tuesday, or of voting with the Republicans, should reflect that personally no candidate on the Democratic ticket is in issue; that their Democracy and honesty being conceded, personality has no further bearing on the contest; that no committee nor any member of any committee is a candidate or is in issue; that the question to be decided at the polls is purely one of Democracy or Republicanism, and that no Democrat can withhold his vote from his party without striking a blow at Democracy itself. Put aside factional differences and personal or local objections and vote for the Democratic ticket, from top to bottom.

WASHINGTON PARK'S STEWARD.

Jules Reese Said to Have Embezzled Over $15,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Jules Reese, steward of the Washington Park club for several years, recently sailed for Hamburg. It is now charged that he embezzled over $15,000 from the club. The clubhouse restaurant has been running behind for several years. Finally an investigation was started. The inquiry had not gone far before astonishing discoveries were made. The members learned that Reese was a man of very extravagant habits. He had a string of trotting horses and several runners. Before the committee had made enough headway with its work to learn how much the club had lost through the dishonesty of its steward, Reese learned that he was under suspicion. He rushed into his office, seized all the records, credit checks and everything else that might furnish a clew to the amount of his embezzlement, and compelled the fireman under a threat of death to burn them in the furnace. Immediately afterward he disappeared.

Three Prisoners Escape.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Three desperate criminals, all under indictment for serious crimes, escaped from the Tippecanoe county jail yesterday. By sawing a bar off they gained access to the main corridor, and when the turnkey, John Condon, unlocked the main door they sprang upon him, forcing him into a corner and making their escape through the office, after locking Condon in. The prisoners had nearly an hour's start before Condon could make himself heard. The names of the prisoners are Taylor Robbins, Thomas Riley and Ed Winchester. The sheriff has offered $500 for their capture.

Brown's Iron Bitters does not injure the teeth or cause constipation, as all other iron medicines do. If your stomach troubles you, it's Brown's Iron Bitters you need! Do not try it as an experiment merely, for many, many sufferers have told us of dyspepsia cured—health restored—you need not doubt!

THE WIND-UP.

Democrats Will Close the Campaign With a Grand Rally To-night.

Judge Fleming, of Louisville, and Others to Speak—Big Crowds Expected.

The Democratic meeting at Orangeburg on yesterday afternoon was a brilliant success. Notwithstanding the frolics of a high west wind, the audience of ladies and voters gave serious attention to the speeches of Judge Whitaker, Ben. Lee Hardin and J. D. Kehoe, which were sandwiched by inspiring strains from Haucke's Band. A very delightful lunch had been prepared for the visitors.

At Lewisburg last evening the rag was taken from the bush and the whole bakery captured. Loving hearts and deft fingers had decorated the hall and prepared a banquet that was perfect in all of its appointments and service and was greatly enjoyed. A heavy rain to a slight extent marred the prospect, but failed to chill or dampen the enthusiasm of the Democracy. Had the hall been three times its capacity it would have been too small for the crowd of handsomely dressed ladies and their husbands and lovers who were present. Blood warming addresses by County Attorney Newell, Mr. Ben Lee Hardin, Mr. J. N. Kehoe, Mr. F. P. O'Donnell and Judge Whitaker, in the order named, and good music from Haucke's Band made the occasion a thoroughly enjoyable one. Next Tuesday Lewisburg precinct promises to add additional luster to the fame it has enjoyed as the banner precinct of old Mason.

The Democrats of Mason County will close the campaign with a grand rally at the court house to-night.

Judge Wm. B. Fleming, of Louisville, will be the orator of the evening. Other speakers will also be present.

All the single X clubs of the county have been invited and a big outpouring of the Democratic hosts is expected.

Judge Fleming was the orator at the close of the campaign here in 1892, and his speech on that occasion evoked the most enthusiastic applause.

All Democrats are urged to be on hand to-night.

Steel as a Roofing.

Messrs. Thompson & McAtee are receiving to-day a car-load of the Globe Steel Roofing and are now prepared to fill all orders promptly, and promise there shall be no further disappointment to those who have already placed their orders with them. Steel is fast going to the front as roofing. Its durability, strength and quality make it one of the best and cheapest roofs now being used. It is rain and fire proof, and when properly applied and taken care of will last as long as the building upon which it is placed.

Messrs. Thompson & McAtee inform us that their trade on this roofing is gradually increasing, and they are now ordering by the car-load.

They are also receiving from New York 100 squares best felt roofing, which will be used over the old shingle roof of Messrs. Parker & Glasscock's livery stable.

The Stock Question in Sixth Ward.

The question as to whether stock shall be permitted to run at large in the Sixth ward will be decided next Tuesday by the voters of that ward. Some of the people of the ward are raising hogs in pens on their premises, and the impression has gotten out that the hogs will have to go too, if the question carries. This is a mistake. The question is whether stock shall be permitted to run at large.

Quick Work.

On October 2nd, Mr. Jacob Marsh's residence in Charlesten Bottom was destroyed by fire. It was a brick building and the walls were not greatly damaged. The contract for rebuilding was awarded to Messrs. Lane & Worick, and the work was commenced the following Monday. Thursday it was completed, and the painters will finish their work to-day.

The Modern Mother.

DUNNING BY POSTAL CARDS.

Dismissal of an Indictment Against a Prominent Maysville Merchant.

During the October term of the Federal Court at Louisville the grand jury returned an indictment against Mr. John T. Martin, of this city, for violating the United States postal laws by mailing what are commonly called "dunning cards" to a debtor in Chicago.

The attorney for Mr. Martin filed a demurrer, claiming that the United States law had not been violated and that the charge should be dismissed. Judge Barr, after considering the facts, sustained the demurrer Thursday and dismissed the case.

The Courier-Journal says: "A review of a former case is in point as it had a material bearing upon the Martin case. July 8, 1892, Judge Barr had before him an indictment against R. G. Elliott for sending the following postal card to a tenant:

LEXINGTON, KY., March 1, 1892.

Your rent was due Thursday, February 25, 1892, and has not been paid. If the rent is not paid by Thursday, March 3, 1892, I will place the matter in the hands of an officer. Respectfully,

R. G. ELLIOTT.

"Any delineations, epithets, terms or language of an indecent, lewd, lascivious, obscene, libelous, scurrilous, defamatory or threatening character or calculated by the terms, manner or style of display, and obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character or conduct of another."

"According to the act of September, 1888, postal cards containing language of the import given were non-mailable, and a heavy penalty could be imposed for violating the law. Judge Barr held in that case the language used did not violate the letter or spirit of the law.

"The Martin case was based on three postal cards which were written in August last to the Chicago debtor. The first read:

"Your account, due since January 1st, 1892, still stands without credit and remains due us $50.50, notwithstanding the numerous letters of promises we have on file that you have mailed us, and we hope you do not consider our account settled with promises. Since you have been silent so long we will appreciate a remittance."

The second postal reads:

"Your insulting letter of yesterday to hand, and in reply will state we are not looking for trouble, but simply for an account you owe us of $50.50, made in the year of 1891. Have received nothing but promises since. We respectfully ask that you make some attempt at paying us, and are willing to accept $1 per week on account until settled. You certainly can not ask more than this. We have your letters where you have made promise after promise, and failed to fulfill them, and now ask for something more than promises."

The third postal reads:

"From what we can learn here you are not working for starving wages, as you wrote in your last, but get a good, fair salary, and we must insist on your paying something on account."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

DELIGHTED!

We have everything to gain by trading on a narrow margin of profit. We could not fill our shelves with goods at the very lowest prices known in the market if we did not buy on a large scale, and we could not sell on a larger scale unless we gave the public the full benefit of our close buying. We love to make our discounts. Our business will grow steadily, because we give it close attention. We buy cheap; we can sell cheap. Try us, the people's grocers.
